PURE BRED CATTLE SALE AT LACOMBE.

The Alberta Cattle Breeders Association recognize the Claim of Lacombe

The proposition to hold a Pure bred Cattle Sale for Central and Northern Alberta at Lacombe is attracting attention. It is universally recognized that Lacombe is several respects the proper and natural point for the principal sale of pure-bred stock of every kind for Alberta.

Directors of The Alberta Cattle
Breeders Association, have valued up to the strong position and claims of Lacombe. The following letter has been received by the Secretary and will speak for itself.
All Lacombe and district should now make up their minds to make the pure-bred stock sale at Lacombe, the most important in Alberta.

Calgary, Alta., Jan. 9, 1909.
Dear Sir:—I believe that the Lacombe Board of Trade and Agricultural Society have decided to hold an auction sale of bulls during June.

The question naturally presents itself, is it time that the Alberta
Cattle Breeders Association should hold sales in one or two points in the province besides Calgary? The sale at Lacombe is the first break in and the

our directors that I have seen are inclined to think that we should take the matter up and decide whether it would be advisable to approach the above organizations with a view of having the sale at Lacombe held under the auspices of the Cattle Breeders Association.
At the suggestion of the Deputy Minister of Agriculture, I am calling a meeting of the directors of the Association to discuss the matter. A meeting will be held at Calgary on Friday, January 16th at 10:30 a.m. in the offices over the Empire Theatre, entrance—1st door north of Molsons Bank, upstairs, and in order that the directors from the Lacombe district, and the directors farther north who might find it inconvenient to attend the meetings at Calgary, can be reached, I am calling a meeting of the directors of Lacombe for Tuesday, January 19th,
at the Adelphi hotel at 2:30 p.m.
or immediately after the arrival of the train from the south if it should be later than that.

I trust that as many of the directors as possible will be present at the nearest meeting place or at both meetings if they find it convenient, as these meetings will be very important from the standpoint of deciding the policy of the Association respecting sales at different points.

CHARGED WITH FORGING CHEQUES.

Cyril D. Forbes, Well Known in Lacombe Arrested in Winnipeg.

Wednesday's Free Press says: Charged with forging a cheque on the Traders' bank for $114, Cyril De Torr Forbes, secretary-treasurer of Malcolm's Western Canneries, Ltd. of this city, was arrested by a detective from police headquarters last evening.

Forbes, it is said, had been missing for several days, and parties interested in his apprehension were not aware that he had been found and arrested until the Free Press informed them last evening. According to them, Forbes, who, prior to this had a good record, went off on what is technically known as a "bat" during the Christmas holidays, and later his employers discovered irregularities in his business dealings dating from a day during the holiday season. An effort was made to find him and failed, and his employers decided that he had left the city. The impression obtained that he had gone to St. Paul, had one man who is closely concerned in the affair was surprised to learn last night that Forbes had been arrested.

The charge against Forbes of forging a cheque for $114, is said to be only one item of several amounting in all to about $300. As secretary-treasurer of the company, it was apart of his duty to countersign all cheques and drafts issued by the company in the regular course of business. The allegation made is that Forbes at various times recently, forged the names of the managing director of the company and the names of other officers of the concern whose signatures were necessary and then countersigning them himself in the regular manner, cashed them at the Traders' bank. The fact that he is an especially good penman, an expert in fact, is said to have rendered it easy for him to produce the deception. After obtaining the money Forbes is believed to have continued his dissipation, remaining in Winnipeg throughout.

It is likely that the case, if it goes to trial, will develop a nice point of law, as the bank authorities state that they are not responsible for the money Forbes is said to have drawn out. In the ordinary case the bank is liable for depositors' funds paid out on forged cheques, but in this instance the bank claims that the cheques were presented by a duly authorized officer of the company, in the ordinary way, and that they are therefore not responsible for the loss.

The irregularity charged against Forbes was first discovered by one of the clerks of the company who noticed something in one of the signatures that attracted his attention and aroused suspicion. An investigation followed. Forbes is a man of superior address and refinement. He is an Englishman by birth, but has been in this country for some years. Prior to his connection with the Malcolm company he lived in Lacombe, Alberta. Forbes appeared in the police court this morning, but was remanded until tomorrow.

About a year ago, Forbes was accountant in the Union Bank at Lacombe, and is well known throughout the district.

Complete arrangements have been made for the holding of the second annual Music Competition Festival, which takes place in Edmonton on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 4th and 5th next. The success of last year's festival held in May, 1908, was most gratifying, both to the committee in charge and also to the contestants and visitors from all parts of the province. The arrangements were complete and the decisions of the adjudicators (two of Winnipeg's ablest musicians) were decidedly impartial. The results were pleasing to the out-of-town contestants, they having won the majority of the competitions for which they entered, the winners being from Damsland, Crossfield, Wetaskiwin and other places.

Temperance Column.

Edited by Secy. of the Lacombe W. C. T. U.

Why We Vote Dry.

We believe always in being fair, and allowing the one who does not agree with us all legitimate liberty of thought and action. We therefore set nothing down here in contrary spirit, but simply wish to state why we are compelled, at every opportunity given, to vote for the cutting down of the number of places where one man may sell intoxicating liquor to his fellowmen.

1. The fact that every maker of liquor and every one interested financially in the liquor trade strongly opposes local option or license reduction argues that our idea that fewer licensed places means less liquor consumption is not a mistaken one. Even supposing that temperance people could be fanatical and prejudiced enough on the matter not to see straight, the chances that liquor dealers would be mistaken is very small indeed.

2. If fewer licensed places means smaller liquor consumption there is every likelihood that it will mean some other things that will make for the welfare of the community in temporal affairs. It is true that we have testimony put forward of an opposite kind occasionally, but we have never been able to make it convincing. The man who spends his money for liquor, to a large degree wastes that money, or at least puts it to the very worst industrial use. More than that, in the vast majority of cases he lowers his own usefulness to the community by lessening his productive power. This is not conjecture, it is fact abundantly testified to. Industrially, and in the matter of general well-being, the liquor traffic has proved itself a woful nuisance.

3. In morals, also, liquor drinking in general has been harmful. This is not saying that every man who drinks is demoralized thereby, but the traffic in general way has had, and continues to have, a demoralizing effect upon the better life of the community. We all know that in our inmost hearts, and it surely must follow that if we succeed in lessening the consumption of liquor we achieve something for the moral betterment of the community. Here also men profess a different faith, as when they tell us local option breeds perjury, but it is very hard to take seriously a man who talks after that fashion. We will work and vote all ways to cut off the selling of liquor because we believe that it is a crime to license a man to sell to his brother that which, when drunk, will cause such crime and suffering and shame. The license system is an expedient of governments to partially control, and at the same time profit by, a great evil. It is not the Christian way of dealing with it.

Annual Meeting of St. Cyprins.

The annual meeting of the congregation of St. Cyprins Church was held on Tuesday, January 5th. After reading of minutes, the Rev. E. A. Robinson, chairman, announced that the Bishop and Executive Committee of the Diocese, had gladly acceded to the proposal of this congregation and that of St. Mary's church, Poncha, to form jointly a self-supporting parish. As in such cases the Organist in charge becomes a Rector, the Bishop had intimated that he would visit Lacombe at an early date to induct Mr. Robinson to the Rectory. The financial report showed a deficit of about $200, practically the same as at the last annual meeting, but the various reported arrears of envelope subscriptions considered good, about equal to the shortage. Officers were elected as follows: Clergyman's warden, G. W. Haylock; People's warden, F. W. Towler; Vestry, W. L. Elliott, T. M. Stedman, Frank Young, Jr., H. A. Young, E. F. Young, Thos. Cummings, E. J. Tels, C. Craig, Joe Wheeler, T. F. Roberts, F. Young Jr., Ed. Roberts, Auditors, E. J. Tels, T. M. Stedman; Delegates to Synod, Col. Gregory and T. F. Roberts, with H. A. Young and G. W. Haylock as substitutes; Missionary Committee and Representatives of the congregation on general Laymen's Missionary Movement Committee, should one be formed for the town, G. W. Haylock and J. Wheeler. The Duplex Envelopes having arrived from Toronto were exhibited and distributed to the subscribers present. The Wardens were appointed a committee to inquire into the provision of new hymn books.

Wetaskiwin's Fire.

Wetaskiwin, Jan. 6.—The fire which swept over a portion of this city this morning was one of the fiercest ever experienced here. The fire started at 5:30 in P. Burns and Co.'s block, situated on the corner of Pierce and McDonald streets. From the evidence of those who were at the scene, first, the fire was pouring out of the office of P. Burns & Co. when they arrived, and if water had been handy at the time the fire might have been quenched. As it was, good headway had been made, and once started, could not be stopped without much damage. The fire engine was run out, and when steam was up commenced to pump water on the blaze, which had by this time developed what is known as the Hull block, but which has been purchased by P. Burns & Co. Nothing could save this building, as it was a frail structure. W. J. Stevenson had his stationery store on the corner, and next to him was P. Burns & Co.'s butcher shop. On the second story were several offices and a dressmaking establishment. No thing was saved from this block. The fire swept east, catching the Livery barn run by W. H. Eggleston, and owned by Mrs. Barnhill. In this was stored the fixtures belonging to the Canadian Bank of Commerce and several parcels of furniture. The horses and rigs were run out in time. Passing over the livery, the fire caught Compton and Montgomerie's general store. This is a big establishment, but little time was given, and only a few loads of goods and the books were secured. It was then seen that nothing could prevent the fire from running to the Star store building, where there was a fire wall, and an effort was made to make a break by pulling down the store occupied by C. C. Bailey as a Jewellery store. While this was being accomplished, the firemen mounted the store E. T. Williamson and poured a stream of water on the fire to prevent it coming further, at the same time another gang was busily engaged in the tearing down of the buildings in the rear of the scene of the conflagration. These objects were at last accomplished, and the fire brought into subjection. It was by this time 8 o'clock. The weather was very severe on those not in the zone of the fire, but all helped to do what could be done. C. C. Bailey's Jewellery store and E. T. Williamson's Jewellery store were the last two buildings. The stock was removed partly from the former and almost entirely from the latter, and placed for safe keeping in the Imperial bank. And when the work was done only Williamson's store remained standing against the fire wall of the Star store. The total loss will amount to over $70,000, made up as follows: W. J. Stevenson, $12,000; insured for $8,000; P. Burns & Co. building, $7,000; stock, $2,500; some insurance. Dr. Stevenson was away visiting in Toronto and lost all his belongings, amounting to $1,500; C. D. Smith, $300; O. Hughes, $800; Miss Norton, dressmaker, lost everything; also J. D. Bellay, lawyer. The livery barn belonging to Mrs. Barnhill, $3,000; W. H. Eggleston lost contents of barn not removed; Bank of Commerce, $250, fixtures; other stores $300, belonging to private parties. Compton and Montgomerie, $35,000; insured for $25,000. Smith and Gibbs removed most of their office fixtures. O. C. Bailey will lose considerable stock destroyed; and E. T. Williamson some $500 Jewellery stock. The Merchants Bank, Higgs drug store, Queens hotel, and Mrs. Harkness' buildings were damaged by broken glass, etc.

Hicks Acquitted on Murder Charge.

Winnipeg, Jan. 7.—After the most sensational murder trial held in Winnipeg during the last twenty years, Thomas Henry Hicks was yesterday afternoon in the assize court, found not guilty of the murder of Booles Lemox, who was killed in the C. P. R. sleeping car Shuswap on the morning of November 18. For eight days the prisoner has sat in the dock with the mien of an innocent man, and the verdict of the jury was received with general applause by the large crowd in the court room. The applause was deafening, and Mr. Justice Richards stated that during his ten years on the bench he had not seen such disgraceful behaviour in a court room. Only twenty-one minutes were occupied by the jury in reaching their verdict. The trial of Hicks was marked by many incidents of a sensational character, and the circumstances of the case were such as to make it remarkable in many ways. At the outset the general opinion seemed to be that the prisoner was guilty, largely because of the evidence given by Walter Rogers, who claimed to have been an eye witness to the most brutal murder in years. As the trial progressed opinion changed, and when the evidence was all in there were few who looked upon him as a murderer. One of the sensational features of the trial was the testimony of John Krafconk, the cell mate of Hicks in the jail, whose story of giving the fatal revolver to Walter Rogers was one of the strongest points in the defense of the prisoner. For eight days witnesses after witnesses to the number of more than forty have told their story on the witness stand, and it has all been a great strain upon the judge and jury, as well as counsel and court officials. What may be the aftermath of the trial is doubtful. The verdict of the jury has discredited the statements of Walter Rogers, but no statement has been given out by the crown officials as to any action being taken against other parties on a charge of murder. It is understood that the crown will be given a statement by Hicks as to his movements on the night of the murder, but whether this will implicate any person definitely cannot be ascertained. Mr. Justice Richards charged strongly in favor of the prisoner, pointing out the very doubtful evidence given by a number of the chief witnesses. He went over the story of Rogers and warned the jury to be very careful about accepting such statements from such a man, and hanging a man upon the evidence of one person unless it should be the most reliable. So many of the statements of the witnesses seemed incredible that his lordship cast doubt upon their veracity.

President Roosevelt Degrades His Office.
London, Jan. 8.—It is impossible to ignore altogether the complete change of attitude which has taken place in the last year in the English press and among Englishmen at large towards the chief magistrate of the United States. The English people are seldom inclined to openly criticize their friends, and moreover they are unwilling to form misconceptions through their strictures upon an individual being interpreted as an indication of lack of goodwill towards those whom he represents. The effect of this state of mind, so far as the press is concerned, has been for some time a growing coldness, comments upon presidential actions and utterances assuming a perfunctory character. The developments of the last fortnight, however, have been of such a nature that even friendly critics have been led to speak openly. It would be easy to quote manifold comments from the last exponents of public opinion in the nature of rebuke to President Roosevelt for his lack of restraint and his undisciplined language. A single example in the Globe, however, will show the trend of English feeling. The article says: "Roosevelt is so great a man in many respects that it is a thousand pities that he can not contrive to be greater. The office which he still holds is one of the highest to which any human being can aspire and the enormous power for good which it confers has upon the whole been worthily exercised by its present occupant. It is therefore with feelings of regret and repulsion that we see the President of the United States descending into the gutter of controversy and endeavoring to outvie the very Bowery of New York in the violence and coarseness of his abuse. This is the true loss of his majesty and it is infinitely more damaging to the dignity of a great ruler than any foolish gibes from the outside can ever be. "Roosevelt talks of lying, of blackmail and of scurrilous libel. He declares that his parliament is deeply concerned over the fact that secret service agents are investigating the conduct of its members and recommends the criminal prosecution of a newspaper which has dared to attack his government. Roosevelt had far better recommend the prosecution of himself for the heinous offence of degrading the Presidential office by mingling in scurrilous and disgusting disputes. "This charge, which in our own words, he imported to the campaign, has evidently entered his own system, and the result is a very melancholy spectacle. It was a betrayal alike of the traditions of a great office and of the simplest canons of good taste when to throw himself into the campaign at all; but, having done so, and having succeeded, he might surely have spent the last few months of his occupancy of the White House in an atmosphere of personal dignity. To preserve to the end the manners and language of an angry fishwife is not the way to win the respect of his own country or of any other."

Wor. Bro. J. A. Jackson, G.M. of the Ponoka, performed the ceremony in a very able manner, and the following officers were installed for the current year:

Sen. Steward, Bro. C. H. Brown.
Jun. Steward, Bro. W. N. Morrison.

D. of O., Bro. W. J. Simpson.
Tyler, Bro. J. Wheeler.

Mrs. Murphy's Reception.

Mrs. Roy Clarke Murphy's reception, on Friday last, was largely attended, although one of the coldest days of the season.

The bride, who received in a gown of palest mauve and white with real lace and Dresden trimmings, was assisted by Miss Campbell of Ponoka, in pale pink veil.

Mrs. R. W. McKinnell of Ponoka, in a pretty rajah costume, had charge of the tea-room and was assisted by Miss Lora Butler, sister of the bride, who wore a dainty white frock. Little Miss Marjory Day, all in white, ushered in the ladies.

A beautiful Shamrock in bloom on a large center table, made a most effective table decoration.

The decorative scheme throughout, was deep crimson and green, and was carried out in shaded lights and candles.

Mrs. Murphy will receive the first Thursday of each month.

Mrs. W. F. Graham will receive on third and fourth Thursdays of each month.

Mrs. J. A. Stringer will receive on Thursday, 14th inst., at her residence, Edmonton Trail, and on the third Thursday of every month thereafter.

Alberta Needs the Farmer Student.

"A progressive, educational agriculture policy will be one feature of the coming year's work of the Alberta department of agriculture," said Deputy Minister Harcourt in conversation with a reporter.

"Although at present we have no agriculture college, this will not keep the young men from getting a college course if they want to."

"There are not enough students at present to have an agriculture college in the province, but they can get instruction in the east at the expense of the provincial government."

"This is not generally known by the Alberta public, but nevertheless it is a fact. The local government agrees to pay railway fares and non-residential fees to every young man in the province to the eastern colleges, Toronto or Manitoba colleges, as they may desire."

"They also will do the same with young women for domestic science, and they already have ten female students in the east."

"The aim of the government is to place the young men and women of the province on equal footing in agricultural education as would be the case had they a provincial college."

"The government is able to do this even cheaper than if they had a provincial college, as this, with a small number of students, would be more expensive."

MARRIED.

POOLE-KENT—At the home of the bride's parents, Lacombe, on Wednesday, Jan. 6, by the Rev. R. A. Robinson, Garnet Poole to Elgertha May Kent, both of Lacombe.

SMITH-CASTLEMAN—At the Methodist parsonage, Wetaskiwin, on Monday, Jan. 4, by Rev. O. L. Laidman, Charles Rolan Smith to Lillian Castleman, both of Lacombe.

Mrs. Roy Clarke Murphy is ready to receive pupils for vocal instruction. For information, please call at the residence of the Misses Smith, Barnett Avenue.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

ANY one numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 3 and 36, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or may make over 16 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at the District Land Agency or Sub-Agency for the district in which the land is situated. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at an Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

(1) The homesteader is required to perform the homestead duties under one of the following plans:

(a) At least one residence must be situated on and cultivated of the land in each year for three years.

(b) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, and less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Such ownership in land will not count the residence.

(c) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has previously resided on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with his father (or mother).

(4) This term "vicinity" in the last paragraph is defined as including not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances situated in the neighbourhood.

(5) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above plans living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district of such intention.

Any notice given in writing must be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, or intention to apply for notice.
